Through our programs and services, you can support the Centre created by professionals for emerging artists where they can network, exchange ideas, gain some confidence, get help with auditions and be mentored. Help is available also for artists who are dealing with mid-career crises or seeking to make career changes. Helping the Centre is a sound investment in the new generations of Canada's performing artists, and our musical heritage.

PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Encounters and Concerts:

Encounters and Concerts: where artists are able to experiment, and curate live-streamed Concerts, which serve as auditions for presenters, build audiences, and create valuable archives on YouTube.

Career Moves:

A Panel of professionals in diverse areas of the cultural industry give practical advice on the business of performing, contracts, negotiation, long-range planning and expectations.

Round Tables and Mentoring:

Informal sharing of knowledge, skills, information and resources on specific issues, in groups or one-on-one.

Challenging artists to move beyond their comfort zone and to enhance their professional and personal growth in their search for excellence.

These programs are vital to the development of Canadian performers. We have supported them in their training, they now need your help to succeed.
